THE SPEAKING HUSKY

MISSION: Making Public Speaking and the Communication Arts Fun for Positive People Between 10 and 110.

HI, I'M BILL:

I help people make better speeches. I write. I help people break through creative blocks. I give speeches.

TOGETHER WE CAN:

- Work so you will be the best you when making a speech.
- Work on your fear of speaking in front of groups. I've been there!
- Co-create an effective speech for your next presentation.
- Practice the basics of making a great presentation.
- Other cool stuff that I haven't even thought about yet!

THINGS THAT MOTIVATE ME:

- The joy of seeing clients break through barriers and become more effective communicators!
- This process: Research— Analyze—Synthesize—Present.
- Using business as a means to make the world a better place for everyone. (I'm very interested in social business enterprise and sustainable business.)
- Positive people, rock 'n' roll, books, and the great outdoors!

LOCATION:

Where cool stuff happens.

I am in Huntsville, AL, USA, but you don't have to be!

PAY WHAT IT'S WORTH:

Remember... you are the boss here. Your satisfaction with my work isn't just a marketing promise — your satisfaction with my work ultimately determines what my income will be.

I trust that what you pay will depend on:

- 1. Your fairness
- 2. Your satisfaction
- 3. Your benchmarks
- 4. Your financial position

The Speaking Husky is a Social Business Enterprise.

SPEAKING

Do you have employees who fear public speaking more than some two year olds fear Santa Claus or the Grinch?

Do you have employees who would make a presentation to save their life, but who may be hesitant to make a presentation that would save their livelihood, or help your bottom line?

Do you have colleagues who live with multiple chronic medical conditions? Would these people benefit from an optimistic speech about living with those conditions?

Would you like the silly dude with the Speaking Husky website to inspire and entertain your employees for a few minutes?

I can speak on these topics and more!

WRITING

Do you have aspirations to write, but never seem to fit time to write into your schedule?

Are you awesome at understanding numbers, facts, and figures, but have trouble developing creative marketing slogans and tag lines?

Do you keep turning down speaking engagements at community or other groups because there is no time for speech writing in your schedule?

Do you write well yourself, but write even better when you have a co-writer or someone to bounce your ideas off?

I love to write, and I can assist you with your writing.

COACHING

Does the idea of speaking in front of groups make you more frightened than the idea of driving your car off a cliff?

Have you wanted to become a better speaker for years, considered going to Toastmasters, but never find time to get there?

Are you a Toastmaster but would like to speed up your development as a speaker, by working with someone who has been in Toastmasters for over 11 years?

Are you very confident in most areas of your life, but less than confident when it comes to making presentations?

I can work one on one with you to help you become a better speaker.
